Dr. Guadalupe Marquez-Velarde explains racial health disparities and COVID-19

05/21/2020

The COVID-19 pandemic is bringing light to the issue of racial health disparities. Dr. Guadalupe Marquez-Velarde has helped explain this issue and the research that found racism has many manifestations that make minority communities more susceptible to chronic illness and increased the risk of hospitalization and death due to COVID-19.

Watch the full lecture display: block; margin-left: auto; margin-right: auto;//www.youtube.com/embed/VZXHhfCU8p06403600